(Now place the bowl or container on a table – pour the jug of clean water in)

This is the kind of water I would like to live in if I was a marine animal!

So what should I do? Should I call a real estate agent and buy a new home?

But I'm a _____ (insert the animal that you choose)

I don't have any money, I do not have a phonewhat can I do?

I'm not sure what the _____ (insert the animal that you choose) can do

We are on a mission to help protect animals, come and join us! (or insert your own ending)
